Volunteers will receive one free book for every hour worked.

We gladly accept donations for the book sale that include books in good condition (clean, dry, mold-free), full sets of encyclopedias from the last 3 years, audio books and music on CDs, and movies on DVD or Blu-ray (in their original cases). We can no longer accept magazines (including National Geographic), textbooks, Reader's Digest condensed books, cassette tapes or VHS tapes.

The proceeds from the book sale are used to broaden and enhance the library's print and audio collection, library services, and educational and cultural opportunities for families in our community.
